

Introduction for Monique Russell

- Today, we are delighted to introduce Monique Russell.
- Monique Russell is an Executive Communications Coach, international speaker and servant leader.
- Monique Russell has 20 years' experience in the field of Communications with diverse industry experiences in higher education, technology and government industries.
- Monique Russell helps leaders and teams go from good to great as confident communicators by teaching effective communication strategies to enhance personal and professional relationships.
- Monique is passionate about helping people like you and I practice living leadership from the inside out.
- Also known as The Clear Communication Coach, she empowers clients to discover their hidden potential by understanding their natural communication and personality styles.
- Russell is a frequently sought after guest on local, national and international radio. Her advice has been featured on Thrive Global, Leadercast, Business RadioX and countless other publications.
- She's the author of the CD, 100 Affirmations for Increased Confidence: Build Character and Great Relationships That Will Last You For A Lifetime!
- She is originally from the beautiful islands of The Bahamas, and also Nigeria.
- She is the founder and managing partner of Clear Communications Solutions, LLC, a global training, coaching and consulting firm providing communications and leadership skills development.
- Please help me welcome, "The Clear Communication Coach"...Monique Russell!